WITH THE MAJORITY.

The Place Ormsby Wants to Occupy in the Legislature.

To THE EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:—The political signs throughout the mining counties of Nevada, point to the election of none but silver party legislators, who will take pride in returning Wm. M. Stewart to the U. S. Senate next winter.

The object of this article is to induce sober reflection on the part of taxpayers of Washoe and Ormsby counties, who may not realize the state of public feeling elsewhere in Nevada.

With truth it is said that Washoe and Ormsby counties contain nearly every State and U. S. Institution in Nevada.

We invite the miners and farmers to spend their money at our State and District Fairs, which they are taxed to endow. In Carson we open our hospitable coffers to receive the silver dollars of militia men in an encampment which they are taxed to provide for.

We complain if Legislators do not lavish their salaries upon us each session.

Blessed with these various revenues, whose sources are, among the miners and ranchers, we should not wrong the hardy wielders of the pick and shovel. In their hour of bitter adversity they appeal to us, well fed tax-eaters, for moral support of their independent movement to secure relief from the ills oppressing them.

Instead of handing them a loaf of bread on a silver platter, we hurl a stone at them with a golden sling.

In short we should send men to our next Legislature who are in sympathy with the Silver Party of Nevada.

Without a reflection upon any Legislative candidate yet nominated in Ormsby county, the writer thinks we can select other equally capable men who will be in the majority and have an influence for good.

I appeal not to men's sordid passions to sacrifice their principles upon the altar of self interest, nor to make the ballot box reflect their hard cash judgment, rather than sentiment; but I feel hopeful that they will not let prejudice cloud their sense of what is rightly due to one who has worked so earnestly for their interests as has Wm. M. Stewart.

COMMON SENSE.

The People's Party in the South.

The People's party in Alabama has put out a full electoral ticket and has nominated congressional candidates in every district in the State. It has done the same thing in Georgia, and in South Carolina the alliance candidates, who are virtually members of the People's party, and who stand altogether on that party's platform, have beaten the regular Democratic candidates in five congressional districts out of seven. It is no wonder that southern leaders like Senator Ransom are coming to the National Democratic Committee in distress and asking for money to use in their States, or that Senator Morgan of Alabama has left his important duties as a Behring Sea commissioner to go home and try to stem the tide that is running against his party in that State.—New York Press.

The other evening the Republicans of Montana held what they intended to be the greatest ratification meeting of the campaign at Butte. One of the speakers attempted to slur Weaver and Field and it was the signal of an outburst of applause from the people's party candidates. The crowd turned the pictures of Harrison and Reid to the wall and adjourned with three cheers for the people's party. The only Harrison people in the hall were the speakers.

A. Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his stock. d 13 tf
